Negro In Perry Dies Of Wound

PERRY — A Taylor County grand jury has been called for Thursday to investigate the fatal shooting Saturday morning of Joe Dumas, a Negro about 17 years old.

Constable Henry Sauls, who reportedly shot the youth accidentally, declined to reveal any details, pending the grand jury probe. He said he had given all information to the state attorney.

Sheriff Maurice Linton, who was in charge of the investigation, was in Thomasville, Ga., where his wife is ill in a hospital and was not available for information.
