The document contained herein can be referenced as follows:

(All archival materials are cited using the Chicago Manual of Style 16th Edition. All non-archival materials are cited using The Bluebook 19th Edition except where noted.)
Selma Policeman Held In Killing

SELMA, Ala., June 27—(AP)—Selma Policeman George Booker, 26, is held in jail without bond today, charged with murder in the fatal beating of an aged Negro woman at her rural home.

Sheriff J. E. Kennedy reported the policeman's arrest last night and said the woman, Niecey Brown, 74, was attacked June 10 with a "beer bottle or club," and died the following day without regaining consciousness.

Kennedy said the warrant against Booker was issued by Acting Judge Alston Keith, of the Court of Common Pleas, and was sworn to by the dead woman's husband, Lige Brown, a farmer.

Booker, on the police force here only a few months, entered the Negro's house by "kicking in the door," the sheriff reported, adding that the dwelling is outside the Selma police jurisdiction. He said Booker was off-duty at the time.

Booker was shot in the shoulder while inside the Negro residence, and a charge of assault with intent to murder has been filed against Brown, Sheriff Kennedy said.

Booker was quoted by the sheriff as saying he went to the house to inquire about purchasing fish bait. He was confined in a hospital until his arrest yesterday.

Brown is at liberty under $5000 bond on the assault charge.
Hope Of World

(4) — President Truman's address to the United Nations Conference on circumstang recommendations when this conference of stricken peoples through the darkest days of the war. For it is a declaration of great faith by the nations of the earth—faith that war is not inevitable, faith that peace can be maintained.

If we had had this charter a few years ago—and above all, the will to use it—millions now dead would be alive. If we should falter in the future in our will to use it, millions now living will surely die.

It has already been said by many that this is only a first step to a lasting peace. That is true. The important thing is that all our thinking and all our actions be based on the realization that it is in fact only a first step. Let us all have it firmly in mind that we start today from a good beginning and, with our eye always on the final objective, let us march forward.

Document Not Perfect

The constitution of my own country came from a convention which—like this one—was made up of delegates with many different views. Like this charter, our constitution came from a free and sometimes bitter exchange of conflicting opinions. When it was adopted, no one regarded it as a perfect document. But it grew and developed and expanded. And upon it there was built a bigger, a better, a more perfect union.

This charter, like our own constitution, will be expanded and improved as time goes on. No one thought that it is now a final or a permanent. It has not been in a fixed mold. Changes and additions will certainly be

...